To be Noted

A Cemetery operator may refuse to grant or transfer an Interment Right, in the operator's opinion, the transfer would tend to create a monopoly or encourage dealing in Interment rights.

Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2013, Section 60.

Conditions

The following conditions apply to the Interment Right Holder:

- An Interment Right is a contract between a cemetery operator (Council) and a Right Holder permitting the Right Holder to undertake burials in a particular grave in a cemetery.
- An Interment Right is an 'interest' in land but the Right Holder does not become the owner of the land.
- Interment Rights apply to burial in the earth and in vaults. They also apply to burials of cremated remains in the earth or in a columbarium niche wall.
- An Interment Right allows the Right Holder to bury human remains in a particular grave (next available for Corowa Lawn Cemetery) in a cemetery and for those remains to be left undisturbed (in perpetuity).
- The Interment Right and General Conditions and in accordance with Council's policies and procedures and current fees and charges as agreed to by Council and Cemeteries and Crematoria Act 2013.
- An Interment Right may be varied, transferred, cancelled upon application to Council accordance with current policies and procedures.
- The Right granted to the Interment Right Holder will be dealt with as part of the personal estate upon death.
- If the Interment Right Holder and/or family are responsible for the maintaining of the headstones or memorials in a safe and proper condition. This is not the responsibility of the cemetery.
