MENTAL HEALTH SUPPORT DIARIES NOW AVAILABLE

Free financial year diaries are now available for collection from Council offices in Corowa, Howlong, Mulwala and Urana.

The diary is an initiative of Murrumbidgee Primary Health Network to help support communities and farmers and help build local community capacity and reduce stigma around mental health.

The diaries contain helpful information about mental health and well being, tips on how to manage stress, anxiety and practice self care.

RIVERINA AND MURRAY DIGITAL CONNECTIVITY

Are poor internet connections or mobile phone drop outs impacting on your business or lifestyle?

Federation Council, together with 10 other Councils in the Riverina and Murray district are collaborating to identify what connectivity issues exist.

Community members are being invited to complete a short survey to capture feedback.

Further information is available from Council's website.

COMMUNITY PIANO ON THE MOVE

The Federation Youth Council is looking for a new home for the CommUNITY Piano.

The piano has spent several months at Origin Clothing which has seen many people sit down and play a tune. It is now time for the piano to activate a new space in Sanger Street, Corowa.

Federation Youth Council is inviting business owner/operators to become the next 'Piano Partner' and support the project by wheeling the piano out onto the footpath and then inside their business from the outside elements at the end of the day.

Find out about how to become a Piano Partner from Council's website.

SHARE OUR SPACE

Looking somewhere to play these school holidays? The Urana and Savernake Public Schools are opening their playgrounds to the public in accordance with the NSW Department of Education's Share our Space initiative. Find out more from the Share our Space website.
