DAYSDALE FEDERATION WAY ROAD CONSTRUCTION

Federation Council wishes to advise the community that construction works have commenced on Federation Way Daysdale. Extensive road upgrading works are being undertaken immediately south of the Daysdale township.

Motorists are advised that changed traffic conditions will be present throughout the duration of the works.

The significant roadworks will necessitate one lane traffic restrictions at some times, to ensure safe traffic management during the construction.

Sensor activated traffic lights, traffic control, speed reduction and safety barriers will be in place.

Works are expected to be completed by the end of May 2022, depending on weather conditions.

Further information is available from Council's website.

SUMMER READING CLUB

Children and youth across the Federation Council area are being invited to join the Summer reading club.

Simply pop into the Howlong, Mulwala or Corowa Libraries and sign up to receive your activity booklet and reading record sheet.

Read your favorite books and receive some great small prizes.

Find out more from Council's website.

SCAVENGER TRAIL

The Federation Youth Council has launched a Scavenger Trail.

Explore the local area and uncover some of the many local family and youth spots you may not have discovered yet. Find the hidden gems, water views and activities within the area.

While on your journey, scan the QR codes, and find out what's happening near you, following the clues on the map to uncover the location of the QR codes, leading you one step closer to some amazing local prizes and giveaways.

Each QR code features a letter, once you've collected all the letters you will be able to enter the giveaways being drawn throughout Youth Week, 4 - 14 of April 2022 via the online Entry Form available from Council's website.
