

Federation Council Urana District Newsletter

Message from the Administrator

Federation Council's first council election is imminent and there has never been a more important time for ratepayers to take an interest in local government.

We have received a lot of interest from prospective Councillors and I think it is fair to say ratepayers will have a really big field of candidates to choose from.

I encourage ratepayers to support candidates that are capable, passionate and are known for their commitment and integrity.

Energy and a 'can do' desire to get things done and make a difference should also be important qualities of Federations' future Councillors.

If you have these qualities, some spare time and you are community minded I would strongly advise you to get involved with Council.

As a Councillor you'll be able to balance good local outcomes, with sound decision making, to bring about long-lasting community benefits for current and future generations.

Today's councils face many financial, social and technological challenges and it will be important for the new Councillors work together and meet these from a position of strength to ensure ongoing delivery of the services, infrastructure and facilities that our communities need.

Nominations for candidates open on Monday 31 July and close at 12 noon on Wednesday 9 August.

I am certainly proud of what the organisation has achieved, but there is still a long way to go to meet the challenges of our new community and steer it in the direction our residents want it to go.

Be a part of history, whether you nominate, or vote, make it count. Your vote acts as a momentous opportunity to help shape your Federation Council into the future.

*Candidate nominations will not be received by Council.

All nominations are to be lodged through the Returning Officer and enquiries regarding nominations and electoral material should be directed to the Candidate Helpdesk on 1300 088 942.

Kind Regards,
Mike Eden—Administrator

Council go live

Federation Council has successfully live streamed two of its Council meetings online, in a move Council Administrator Mike Eden believes has made the organisation more transparent.

At Federation Council's February meeting this year Mr Eden said there would be great benefit in raising the profile and interest in meetings through making them more accessible to Council's communities.

"There are a number of councils that record their meetings through video and audio recording," Mr Eden said.

"Council staff have researched a range of options with regards to the technology that is needed to complete this and the most cost effective option for Council is to record meetings with its own equipment and stream this recording on its YouTube channel."

Mr Eden said he hoped that by Council live streaming meetings more residents would engage and take interest in future Council meetings.

"Live streaming will allow residents to watch and listen to the meeting in real time, giving them a greater access to Council decision making and debate and encouraging openness and transparency," he said.

"With life's many commitments, sometimes it can be difficult for residents to attend our monthly meeting, so this way residents will now be able to watch meetings and keep up to date on the latest topics and issues that will be readily available to them anywhere and anytime.

"Engaging with Federation communities is a big focus for Council in our Delivery Program 2017-2020 and Operational Plan 2017-2018 and live streaming is a significant step forward in terms of making Council matters more accessible to the community as a whole."

Council's meetings are live streamed on Council's YouTube channel.

Little Libraries to inspire

Preschool aged children in the Federation Council area are set to benefit from a heart-warming initiative in Little Libraries.

The Little Libraries project is hoped to inspire young readers visually, with their imaginative designs and attention to detail.

Each Little Library will house a range of children's books, that preschool children will be encouraged to borrow and read, to promote a love of literature and reading.

The program has been greatly supported by Community members, who built the bookshelf bases to begin the project.

Corowa High School supported the project and provided a workroom, while Federation Council, Arts and Culture Officer is managing the overall art project.

Twenty Corowa High School students, under the guidance of renowned regional artist Vicki Luke are currently sculpturing and painting their designs on the Little Libraries shells, that once complete will be distributed across the Council area.

Federation Council Administrator Mike Eden said the Little Libraries project is a fantastic initiative and a credit to all involved.

"It is fantastic to see community groups and high school students partnering together for the benefit of our preschoolers," Mr Eden said.

"These Little Libraries will be a great addition to venues throughout our communities and I am looking forward to seeing the housing of the libraries come to fruition."

Following completion the Little Libraries will be displayed at the Corowa ArtSpace from Friday, 4 August 2017 until Saturday, 12 August 2017.

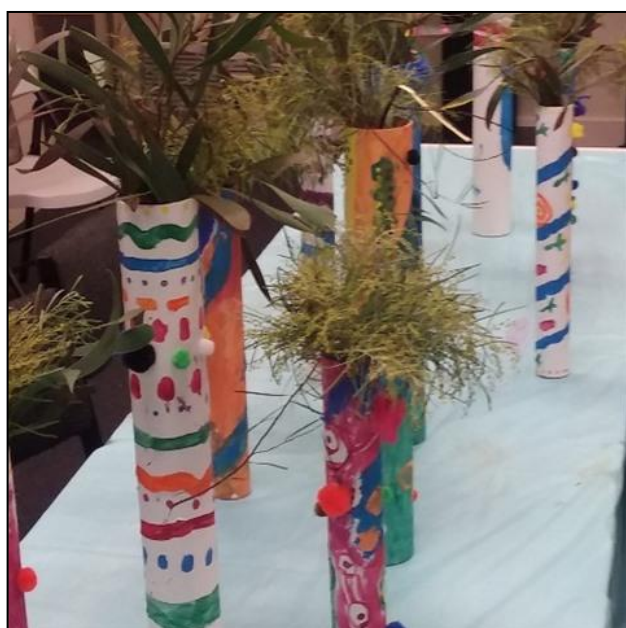

Vicki Luke will speak at the exhibition launch on Friday, 4 August 2017 at 3pm.

The public are invited to attend and are encouraged to vote for their favourite "Little Library" which will gain the winning artist special recognition.

Following the exhibition, Intereach Corowa Community Hub will manage the roll out and the on-going maintenance of the Little Libraries across the Council area.

The Little Libraries project is supported by NSW Arts, Country Art Support.

NAIDOC Week celebrated

NAIDOC Week activities happened all over Australia in July celebrating and promoting a greater understanding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and culture.

Federation Council invited local Artist Bethany Thornber to run a series of workshops at the Corowa Community Hub as a school holiday activity.

The workshops involved the children painting cylinders that acted as trees / story poles.

The children under the guidance of Bethany told their own stories and symbols using a mix media of paints, coloured paper and craft bits and pieces.

This year's theme was 'Languages Matter' and the children were encouraged to include Aboriginal symbols, a core component of Indigenous language, into their story poles.

NAIDOC Week is an annual celebration of Aboriginal culture, occurring in the first full week of July each year.

Volunteers tireless efforts celebrated

Volunteers throughout the Federation Council area were celebrated at a Volunteer Celebration in Mulwala in July.

291 volunteers were nominated from across the Council area and invited to attend the celebration to share a high tea in the beautiful Willow Room at the Yarrowonga Mulwala Golf Club Resort.

Federation Council Administrator Mike Eden said Council was pleased to recognise the important role that volunteers play throughout Council's communities.

"As I've seen time and time again during my time at Federation Council, volunteers are a vital part of all communities, but particularly they are the backbone of smaller communities,” Mr Eden said.

“I’d like to thank the many volunteers in our communities for the time, skills and energy they have dedicated, and will continue to dedicate to their organisations, clubs and causes.

“Thank you for continuing to be part of a great community, and a part of Federation.”

Council would like to further congratulate all volunteers and thank guest speaker Don Elgin who left an inspiring affirmation on the crowd following his address.

Community directory now available

Federation Council has launched a handy tool on its new website, with a community directory now available for sporting clubs, community groups and organisations to list their information for free.

The directory is an online database that residents can use to search for information about groups operating in the Federation Council area.

The directory will include a number of different categories, making finding information a simple and straight forward process.

Administrator, Mike Eden said Council was pleased to provide the opportunity for not-for-profit groups and organisations to create a dedicated listing on Council’s website, which they can easily update at any time and at no cost.

“The website attracts a large number of people who are looking for information about the communities within the Federation Council area, including how to connect with a range of different groups and clubs,” he said.

“This is a great opportunity for all community groups to promote themselves to the broader community and ensure their contact details can be easily found and updated if required.”

The directory is user friendly and allows groups to create a username and password so they can manage their own listing.

Each listing can include information such as the groups name, description, contact details and images.

“We are encouraging all community groups and organisations to go to the website and create their directory listing, so that this becomes a really useful tool for people within the community looking for local information,” Mr Eden said.

A fact sheet has been developed to help guide groups through the process of creating and updating a listing on the website.

Residents are being encouraged to visit Council’s website www.federationcouncil.nsw.gov.au for further information and to create their online listing today.

Council Compliance Notifications for Companion Animals

Whether you consider yourself a dog person or a cat person, we all have a responsibility to our companion animals. Council works hard to communicate with local pet owners regarding these responsibilities, keeping both our fury friends and our community safe.

Responsibilities of Pet Owners

- If your dog is in a public place it must be under the effective control of a competent person by means of an adequate chain, cord or leash. The exceptions to this are; dogs exhibited at a show or engaging in obedience or agility trials or a dog secured in a cage or vehicle or in an approved off leash area.
- If your dog is being exercised in an approved off-leash area it must always be under effective control of a competent person.
- You are not permitted to walk more than four dogs at any one time in an on-leash or off-leash area.
- Greyhounds must be muzzled at all times when in a public place.
- If your dog defecates in a public place it is an offence not to remove the faeces.
- Dogs are prohibited in children's play areas, food preparation/consumption areas, reception areas, public bathing areas, school grounds, child care centres, shopping areas and wildlife protection areas.

Microchipping and Registration

Microchipping and registration is a two-part process that requires dog and cat owners to:

- Have their dog or cat implanted with a microchip from the time they are 12 weeks of age, at point of sale or change of ownership (whichever occurs first).

- Register their animals with their NSW local council by 6 months of age.
- Both the microchipping and registration of your dog or cat include a one-off fee and are for the life of the animal.

Stronger Communities Programme — Round 3

The Stronger Communities Programme supports the Australian Government's commitment to deliver social benefits in communities across Australia by funding small capital projects in each of the 150 federal electorates.

Round 3 of the programme will provide $22.5 million.

The programme's intended outcomes are to improve local community participation and contribute to vibrant and viable communities.

Each local Member for Parliament will identify potential applicants and projects in their electorate in consultation with their community.

Grants will be awarded through a closed non-competitive process where invited applications identified by your local MP will be assessed against the programme eligibility criteria. Applicants will be required to provide co-funding towards their project and grant funding will be up to 50 per cent of eligible project costs.

For further information including how to apply and programme eligibility criteria visit Council's website www.federationcouncil.nsw.gov.au

Stand for Your Community – Call for Council Election Nominations

Federation Council Administrator Mike Eden is encouraging more people - including women, young people and people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds - to stand for their community at this year's September Local Government elections.

Mr Eden believes a greater representation of candidates from all walks of life would not only strengthen Federation Council, but also ensure it has a greater voice for all ratepayers.

"Councillors have an important role to play in making decisions that respond to the changing needs of the community," Mr Eden said.

"Serving the local community as an elected councillor is a challenging but rewarding role.

"It doesn't matter if you don't think you have the experience in local government – if you are passionate about your local community and want to make a real difference then I encourage you to consider this opportunity and stand for your community."

Federation Council has a population of over 12,000, of which over 70% of these are eligible voters. Anyone who is eligible to vote at Council elections in NSW is also eligible to stand for election as a councillor.

Prospective nominees should firstly check to ensure they are on the electoral roll for Federation Council by contacting the NSW Electoral Commission.

"Our council should be a reflection of the people and communities it serves," Mr Eden said.

"Bringing diverse views and experiences to decision making will ensure our local communities get the best solutions and outcomes."

The Office of Local Government has prepared a range of materials to assist prospective candidates in making an informed decision about standing for local government elections.

These resources can be found by visiting www.olg.nsw.gov.au

Nominations to become a councillor open on Monday, 31 July 2017 and close at noon on Wednesday, 9 August 2017.

Nomination forms will be available on the NSW Electoral Commission website www.votensw.info/

The NSW Local Council Elections will be held on Saturday, 9 September 2017.

A poster for the play 'A Midsummer Night's Dream'. The background is a lush green forest with sunlight filtering through the trees. In the center, a man is captured in a dynamic, mid-air pose, as if performing a dance or acrobatic feat. He is shirtless, wearing a loincloth made of leaves and flowers, and has a garland of yellow flowers around his neck. His arms are outstretched, and his legs are in a wide, balanced position. The title 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' is written in a large, ornate, white gothic font at the top. Below the title, the tagline 'There is magic in these forests' is written in a smaller, elegant script. In the bottom left corner, the text 'Presented by Morundah Bush Entertainment Committee Incorporated' is displayed. In the bottom right corner, the letters 'MCB' are written in a large, stylized font.

Oaklands CWA News

Members enjoyed a very productive meeting while planning for the future.

One member attended the CWA of NSW State Conference at Tumby Umbi on the coast, north of Gosford. A great way to have input into current topics of concern.

Pre-school sessions continue in our rooms with attendance rising to 15 children.

A tentative date for the International Study Day of Nepal is Tuesday 19 September.

We would like to draw your attention to the "Invisible Farmer". This is the largest ever study of Australian women on the land & is initiated by Museums Victoria invisiblefarmer.net.au@invisfarmer Please be involved.

CARING FOR YOUR COMMUNITY

Battery Drive

Do you have batteries sitting around
The House/ In the Shed/ Down the Backyard/In the Paddock
Not Knowing What to Do with Them
Give us a Call - we will collect them

This is an ongoing project to be conducted by the Oaklands Lions Club Inc
Please call John Danaher 0427 354 134 to arrange pickup dates and times.

Our current project, to be supervised and undertaken by the Oaklands Community, is the removal of the Ruston Twin Cylinder Engine (which was used to supply power to the Department of Supply (formerly DAS) at Oaklands) to the Oaklands Lions Club Museum at the back of the Memorial Hall. This Ruston Engine will enhance the Museum and will create a spectacular Tourist Attraction for Oaklands.

Your support of batteries will help with the removal and replacement of this Engine.

The Lions Club would like to personally thank all of those families who have donated batteries to us. All funds are used to support the community. We appreciate your support.

DO YOU KNOW SOMEONE IN YOUR COMMUNITY WITH AN ENDURING MENTAL ILLNESS THAT COULD BENEFIT FROM SOME COORDINATED SUPPORT?

Partners in Recovery {PIR} aims to better support people with severe and persistent mental illness and their carers and families by getting services and supports to work in a more collaborative, coordinated and integrated way, for systemic change.

Support Facilitators assist participants to identify their hopes, dreams and priorities and facilitate the coordination of services and supports needed to meet those priorities.

Importantly, Hume PIR will identify where there are systems issues and barriers and lead in the development of systems change.

Contact the Hume PIR Intake Triage Clinician on 02 6041 0056.

Tim Fischer AC praises Urana Court House Museum

Recently Tim Fischer AC visited the Urana Court House Museum, deposited a collection of historic maps and gave a framed photo of a famous rail meeting held at Oaklands.

He also met with Jenny Hearn and saw the displays.

Mr Fischer said the Urana Court House Museum has greatly expanded and improved with a touch of polish in the last decade and deserves full support.

"This is the building where Australia's greatest citizen General, John Monash appeared in Land Board proceedings in 1897, the only time he led a case of this kind; the following caption gives the background, could I suggest to be placed near his portrait in due course", Mr Fischer said.

"In 1897, Sir John Monash having graduated from Melbourne University with degrees in Law, Arts and Engineering returned to Jerilderie to gather evidence to represent the Billabong Creek downstream water users.

"Monash had grown up in Jerilderie and armed with three degrees soon became sought after as an expert witness on water matters and as a legal advocate."

Mr Fischer said "Jerilderie water users were objecting to the large weirs of Coonong Station that the McCaughey family had established.

"The case went initially to the Land Board sitting at Urana Court House, a loaded compromise was ordered by the Land Board that Monash said would still be injurious to the downstream water users, so he led an appeal to the NSW Supreme Court in Sydney," he said.

"This Court ruled in December 1897 outright against the McCaugheys and for those downstream. Monash was a hero as a result downstream, even the McCaugheys had both sides out to their Sydney residence for a drink after the decision but later took their big irrigation plans to Tralee on the Darling River.

"Long serving Mayor of Urana, Councillor Ian Coghill maintained that this decision was a major blow for Urana's economic development at that time, indeed it was but it was also a gain for those downstream and for the growing reputation of the capabilities of Sir John Monash who 20 years later greatly helped turn the tide to victory on the Western Front."
