Federation Council Urana District Newsletter

August 2017

Administrator delivers final message

Federation Council Administrator Mike Eden, at his final council meeting as chair before September 9 election day, took the opportunity to reflect on his time as Administrator.

"As this will be the final meeting that I will chair I would just like to thank everyone for having me," Mr Eden said.

"Since the 12 May 2016, I felt that I had three things to do in my time as Administrator.

"The first task was to ensure there was a merger of the businesses in the former Urana and Corowa Shires and I believe that due to the diligent work from the staff that we have from both former councils, that the Federation Council business is now thriving and I thank them for all their help in achieving that."

Mr Eden said the other task he promised to achieve was that the council would be in a better financial state than what it was left on the 12 May 2016.

"Again, council staff have worked diligently to ensure the organisation is in a better financial state than what it was left in 2016 and it will now be up to the new council to support this current state," he said.

"With the third and final task, one I considered to be one of the most important, I promised I would do everything I can to ensure that we wouldn't have the debacle of uncontested elections.

"It is wonderful to see that we have a large pool of passionate people standing for the upcoming election, and now as a result our ratepayers and residents will be going to the polls on the 9 September."

Mr Eden said he would like to congratulate the 42 candidates on nominating to become a Federation Councillor.

"Congratulations to all those people that have put their hands up," he said.

"I believe they have really shown that they have a passion for the area and good luck to all of them on the 9 September.

"I look forward to handing over the batten to nine terrific councillors, who will continue to work hard for you the rate payers and the citizens."

Federation Council General Manager Chris Gillard followed Mr Eden's address by commending him in his efforts during his time as Administrator.

"I would like to congratulate you, on behalf of the staff and the community for what has been a remarkably good job," Mr Gillard said.

"On behalf of the staff I'd like to say we are excited about the return of elected councillors.

"They did a good job before, and they will do a good job in the future and that job will be substantially based on a foundation that you have left during the restructure period, congratulations Mr Administrator."

Presentation teams beautify Urana area

Federation Council North and South Presentation teams joined together to beautify the Urana area on Tuesday, August 8.

North's Presentation Team Leader gave the crews a run down on the Urana High profile areas and the teams were split and work commenced.

Tasks that were completed on the day were :

- A full groom to the Aquatic Centre, including a canopy lift to park trees.
- Installation and audit of a new sentinel irrigation control system at Macknight Park.

- Playground inspections to Urana and Boree Creek parks.
- Cemetery inspections at Urana and Boree Creek.
- Street trees in Williams street had a healthy prune with a canopy lift.
- Inspection of all areas that are Council maintained.

Joining the North and South teams was a positive initiative and the North Presentation team is now looking forward to coming to Corowa to assist in the coming weeks.

Community directory now available

Federation Council has launched a handy tool on its new website, with a community directory now available for sporting clubs, community groups and organisations to list their information for free.

The directory is an online database that residents can use to search for information about groups operating in the Federation Council area.

The directory will include a number of different categories, making finding information a simple and straight forward process.

Administrator, Mike Eden said Council was pleased to provide the opportunity for not-for-profit groups and organisations to create a dedicated listing on Council's website, which they can easily update at any time and at no cost.

"The website attracts a large number of people who are looking for information about the communities within the Federation Council area, including how to connect with a range of different groups and clubs," he said.

"This is a great opportunity for all community groups to promote themselves to the broader community and ensure their contact details can be easily found and updated if required."

The directory is user friendly and allows groups to create a username and password so they can manage their own listing.

Each listing can include information such as the group's name, description, contact details and images.

"We are encouraging all community groups and organisations to go to the website and create their directory listing, so that this becomes a really useful tool for people within the community looking for local information," Mr Eden said.

A fact sheet has been developed to help guide groups through the process of creating and updating a listing on the website.

Residents are being encouraged to visit Council's website www.federationcouncil.nsw.gov.au for further information and to create their online listing today.

Council supports local shopping initiative

The Corowa Free Press, in conjunction with Federation Council is embarking on a new initiative to keep people shopping local - the Keep It Local Coupon Book.

Residents in the Federation Council area will receive a coupon book in their mailbox during the last week of August which will be full of exciting discounts and deals on everything from tyres and food to giftware and electronics.

The purpose of the coupon book initiative is to inspire participants to visit businesses they may have never been to before and discover the great variety of shopping options available right here in the Federation Council area.

Throughout the year-long campaign there will also be a weekly draw of a $100 grocery voucher, to go direct to local shoppers.

Federation Council General Manager Chris Gillard said Council is proud to support the Keep it Local Coupon Booklet initiative.

"The availability of local goods and services is the foundation of our local economy," Mr Gillard said.

"By choosing to support local business, you not only get great personal service and value, you also help residents and business operators to work together for mutual gain.

"When you invest money in your local economy, you're not just helping local business owners - you're also helping yourself.

"Please support your local traders, they work hard for our benefit."

The sponsors of the campaign include Federation Council, Corowa Supa IGA, Howlong IGA Plus Liquor and Foodworks Mulwala.

The weekly winner of the $100 grocery voucher will be drawn in the Corowa Free Press office each Friday afternoon, to be streamed live on the Corowa Free Press Facebook page and announced in Council's Snippets pages in the Corowa Free Press and Yarrowonga Chronicle weekly.

The Corowa Free Press will have 500 additional coupon books available at a cost of $10 each for those interested in a second book and they are available for those living outside of the Federation Council area who would also like to participate.

The promotion starts on 1 September 2017 and will run until 31 August 2018.

Bald Archy returns to Art Space

The Bald Archy Prize exhibition will be on display at Corowa Art Space from Friday, 15 September 2017 until Saturday, 7 October 2017.

The 2017 exhibition is controversial, critical and above all very, very, comical.

The Bald Archy exhibition is known throughout the world for providing artists of all styles and standards with a genuine opportunity, ranging from the hilarious to the bizarrely vulgar, to create portrait paintings of humour, dark satire, light comedy, or caricature. And... it is the only art event in the world to be judged by a sulphur-crested cockatoo named Maude.

The Bald Archy art prize, which is the satirical alternative to its near namesake the Archibald Prize, is now in its 24th year.

Founded by Peter Batey in 1994, the competition accepts comic or satirical portraits of distinguished Australians in art, science, letters, politics, sport and the media.

The Bald Archy Prize can usually pinpoint the Australian politician who caused the biggest stir and ruffled the most feathers during that year.

In the past, these have been Tony Abbott, Jacqui Lambie and Clive Palmer.

Bald Archy's founder Peter Batey said you can usually predict who that might be.

"Years ago when Pauline Hanson first emerged we had something like 27 Pauline Hanson's entered," he said.

"She's the prime one this year again - with a whole corner of the exhibition dedicated to her."

The exhibition will be on tour at 10 locations throughout Australia including ACT, NSW, Victoria and Queensland.

Art Space is open every day from 10am to 4pm. Entry is $5 for Adults and free for children.

For group bookings and enquiries contact Council on (02) 6033 8999.

Howlong Industrial Precinct receives funding

The Howlong community will receive a boost following news that the Howlong Industrial & Export Precinct (HIEP) project has won funding through the Coalition Government's Building Better Regions Fund, MP for Farrer, Sussan Ley announced this month.

HIEP is a $15.7 million project, led by Federation Council and partnering with the Staughton Group, Killen Trucking and VK Logic Engineering. Ms Ley said that this project would receive $6,983,325 through the Coalition's Building Better Regions Fund, making the project a reality.

“Key to the importance and success of this project under the Building Better Regions Fund is the enormous boost to local employment opportunities this creates for a small town, traditionally reliant on jobs from larger local centres, such as Albury,” Ms Ley said.

Ms Ley said that the Building Better Regions Fund received more than 500 applications nationally, and that the application from Federation Council was one of approximately 100 which were approved.

“The community has fought long and hard for this project and it's so great to see it delivered,” Ms Ley said.

Ms Ley also congratulated Federation Council and the three key project partners, said that she looks forward to working with them to deliver benefits to the community of Howlong and the wider community.

Federation Council Administrator Mike Eden said the funding announcement was a dream come true for all involved in the projects application process.

“The Federal government’s announcement today is incredibly exciting for Federation Council communities, and specifically the Howlong community,” Mr Eden said.

“This project will have a historic economic development benefit to the region, as well as increase business activities and a surplus of employment opportunities for Howlong and surrounds.”

Federation Council General Manager Chris Gillard congratulated all parties involved in the application process.

“Council staff and Administrator Mike Eden, together with consortium partners and our state and federal members worked extremely hard on this project's funding application and the successful outcome is a credit to all involved,” Mr Gillard said.

“Today’s funding announcement is a fine example of just how much can be achieved when council and communities work together.

“I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate the Federal Government for supporting our vision for building a stronger region through sustainable economic development planning.”

Newly re-branded Staughton Group (comprising of Cool Off, Dried & True and Vets All Natural) Managing Director Edward Staughton highlighted the fantastic opportunities this grant will make possible for the consortium members and broader community.

“It’s an extremely exciting opportunity to be a party to this project, which will allow us to invest alongside the grant to continue to expand our export opportunities into the pet food sector, create new jobs and develop a world leading facility,” Mr Staughton said.

“Through building our new structures, we will be able to promote premium Australian meat proteins to the world, and reinforce Australia’s reputation as a supplier of some of the best products available on the global stage.”

Little Libraries Exhibition launch

Artists and exhibition guests joined together at the Art Space on Friday for the much anticipated launch of the Little Libraries.

The Little Libraries project is hoped to inspire young readers visually, with their imaginative designs and attention to detail.

Well known regional artist Vicki Luke has been working closely with 20 students from Corowa High School over the past eight weeks on the ‘Just Saying’ project which was funded by NSW Arts, Country Arts Support Program.

The overall project was managed by Federation Council in partnership with Intereach, Corowa High School and Corowa Community Garden.

The project involved the transformation of 10 bookcases to create amazingly themed works of art designed to inspire a love of reading and literature in preschool aged children.

The first phase: building of the libraries bases by Corowa Community Garden men's shed group.

The second phase: the creation of the art works and exhibition.

The third phase: distribution of the little free libraries throughout Federation Council at various locations including pharmacies, general stores and other community venues. The Corowa Hub (Intereach) will coordinate the roll out and management of the libraries engaging local volunteers in the process.

The exhibition at the Corowa Art Space is from 4 – 26 August.

It celebrates the second phase, which is the creation of 10 inspiring art works and it also acknowledges all involved including the lead artist, Vicki Luke and each of the individual artists.

The public will be asked to vote for their favourite Little Library and the People's Choice winner will be announced following the exhibition period.

60 preschool children are set to visit ArtSpace in the first week of the exhibition and will be interested to find out their favourite.

Corowa Art Space is open from 10am - 5pm, Monday to Friday, 10am - 3pm Saturday and closed Sunday.

Advertise at the Corowa Saleyards

Council is pleased to provide the opportunity for businesses, community groups and organisations to purchase advertising space at the Corowa Saleyards. The Corowa Saleyards is owned and managed by Council and has been operating for more than sixty years.

This highly successful facility is the fourth largest sheep and lamb livestock exchange facility in New South Wales and achieves an annual throughput of 700,000 sheep and lamb sales.

To encourage market share growth and increase sale throughput, a strong commitment to livestock marketing initiatives will be delivered through Marketing Strategies.

Marketing Strategies will focus on advertising, community and public relations and direct marketing.

The revenue raised from selling advertising space at the facility will be directly used to fund ongoing marketing initiatives to effectively promote the Corowa Saleyards.

Council has committed upgrading the facility to increase capacity through better utilisation of the existing site footprint. The upgrade has included:

- 8 new ramps
- Additional holding and selling pens
- Landscaping and presentation improvements
- Signage and lighting improvements

Students celebrate NSW Local Government Week

Federation Council's youngest residents gathered at Victoria Park in Urana today to celebrate NSW Local Government Week.

Students from Oaklands Central School, St Francis Xavier Primary School, Urana Public School, Howlong Public School and Mobile Preschool attended the celebration event to be congratulated by Council Administrator Mike Eden for their involvement in the NSW Local Government Week competition and enjoy a barbeque lunch.

Mr Eden congratulated students, before taking questions from the crowd surrounding council's role in their communities.

"Thank you for coming today to celebrate NSW Local Government Week," Mr Eden said.

"Local Government Week provides a great opportunity each year to celebrate the strong partnership between council and the community.

"It is wonderful to see you all here today and I am proud to say we received an overwhelming response of entries from schools right across the council area."

Mr Eden thanked all the schools who participated and teachers who worked with the students to ensure a great level of awareness about council and the community.

"This level of understanding was really evident in the submissions received - which were all of a high standard," he said.

Competition participants were presented with a certificate and winners of the categories were presented with individual prizes.

Council would like to thank the Urana Bowls Club volunteers for catering for the event.

Urana District School News

ST FRANCIS XAVIER'S SCHOOL URANA

Think, Speak and act like Christ

Greetings!

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone in the wider Urana community who came along and supported our 2017 Paddy's Markets. Through all avenues of fundraising for the markets we raised just over $10,000. This is an incredibly generous amount and something we are very humbled by and grateful for. Thank you to the businesses and townspeople who kindly donated goods, services or cash to put towards our efforts, as without your generosity the day simply wouldn't have been as good as it was. Four people who played an integral part were Pat Bourke and Denis Smith, who conducted all of the auctioning for us along with their right hand man Andy Dore and Katrina Dore, for assisting us with the auction paperwork. Thank you Pat, Denis, Andy and Katrina! They were kept very busy during the day and generously donated their time to ensure it ran smoothly. Thank you to all of our families who contributed to the organisation, set up and pack away of the day. An extra big thank you must go to Kerrie and Damo Gooden who coordinated the event and have been working hard on it for a number of months. Much work occurs in the background to make the day flow and without your backbone efforts the day wouldn't have happened. Thank you!

This week our Diocesan Athletics representatives travelled to Albury to participate in the Diocesan wide carnival. Well done to you all for making it to this carnival and putting in a terrific effort. A number of personal best times and distances were broken on the day and we also won the small school relay. A big thank you must also go to the parents who transported and supported the students as well as the teachers who accompanied them.

I can now announce that Confirmation will be held on Sunday September 10 at 10:00am in St. Fiacre's Church, Urana. Fr. Kevin O'Reilly, who is logistically administering the Diocese at the moment, will be present to confirm the candidates on the day. He also hopes to visit the students the week prior to confirmation in order to discuss the sacrament with them. For any information regarding Confirmation, please don't hesitate to contact the school.

Week Three saw us begin our 2018 Kindergarten Orientation Program where we welcomed Max Fealy to our school. Max will be with us each Wednesday for the majority of the rest of the year as he prepares to begin Kindergarten next year. Welcome Max!

During Week Three, we also participated in the Federation Council's Local Government Week activities. As a culmination of this, we will join the wider community at a BBQ which will be held at Victoria Park on Wednesday, 16th August at 1pm.

God bless,
Mitch Bailey

Oaklands CWA July News

Members enjoyed a warm, comfortable meeting in our rooms on a cold, wet day.

What an achievement it has been to continue the work of the founding women of our branch. What a great contribution to the community & beyond by all members over 68 years. Currently 12 members work together for the CWA aims & objectives.

One item of great interest to us is the RSL Sub-branch building. We have sent a letter to Federation Council requesting the preservation of same. We see it as being of great value to the heritage of Oaklands and strongly oppose its demise. Hopefully we can work to some resolution – perhaps keeping the building as a weather shelter if it is not feasible as a display venue as originally intended to support the Vintage Collection. We would welcome some feedback as to what people think, at least start some discussion for a way forward.

CAN WE DO IT? - YES WE CAN

Would you like to make our district plastic bag free?

Recent media coverage about major grocery chains doing away with plastic bags has helped this issue gain momentum.

The Boomerang Bag concept is so named because it refers to a multiple use bag that keeps “coming back”. Boomerang Bag Communities are sweeping through Australia with the aim of replacing plastic bags with bags made using sustainable, recycled materials.

In the Federation Council, the Corowa Lions Club and Corowa Tree of Life Community Garden have joined to promote and facilitate the manufacturing of Boomerang Bags.

The Boomerang Bag group will be holding working bees to sew bags each Wednesday at the Corowa Lion’s Den from 12.30 – 3:30pm. Are you interested? Would you like to help?

We welcome you to join our Boomerang Bag Community.

Men, ladies, students and new arrivals are all welcome. If you are interested in joining our movement, contact Sally on 0427 549 856 or Lyn on 0400 207 204.

Can we change how people in our community think about using Boomerang bags? If we work together, the answer is “Yes we can!”

For more information on the Boomerang Bag log into www.boomerangbags.org.au

Oaklands Central Students Shine

Oaklands Central Students Shine their light through dance!

On Tuesday 1st August, students from Oaklands Central School displayed their dance skills at the Albury Wodonga Eisteddfod. Students had put a lot of preparation and passion into their dance as they were keen to represent their school. Two students, Chelcee Doyle and Harper Wolter choreographed the dance which used hip hop as the focus. A pure talent shown early on as dancers.

The girls looked great in their costumes; bright tops and hip hop pants, giving the required effect. The dance showed the girls working together and also had featured parts for each of them to shine.

Girls were excited with their result of 3rd place. A great achievement, as is was their first time in the Eisteddfod and against 20 other dance groups from various schools. Feedback reflected the hard work of the students 'Some budding hip hop stars here' and 'Great energy'. Judges were impressed with the quality of their piece.

Overall an outstanding achievement for the young girls from a small rural school!
